

B. Voc in Digital Media & Filmmaking

Internship report 2023-24

Internships offer invaluable opportunities for students to bridge the gap between academic knowledge and real-world application. This is in alliance with the founding principles of the Department of B.Voc in Digital Media and Film Making, which emphasizes on maximum practical exposure for students. Concerning the same, internships are made mandatory for students every semester. During the odd semester of the academic year 2023-24, students were administered internship programs at various digital media and film organizations based on their skills and interests. This report summarizes the experiences of students who participated in a 10-day internship program at various organizations across two diverse sectors, from 23 November 2023 to 02 December 2023.

Collective outcomes of administering internships

- Diverse Exposure: Students were placed in a variety of organizations, including production houses, film sets, marketing agencies, web designing agencies, animation courses, etc. This exposure broadened their understanding of different work environments and career paths.
- Practical Skills Development: Students actively participated in real-world projects, gaining hands-on experience in market research, data analysis, communication, teamwork, content creation & management, and problem-solving.
- Professional Mentorship: Students received valuable guidance and mentorship from experienced professionals, fostering their growth and confidence.
- Enhanced Industry Knowledge: The internship provided students with insights into film production and industries and sectors, enriching their academic understanding with practical context.
- Personal Development: The program fostered personal growth, with students developing time management, communication, and interpersonal skills.

Respected sir,

Reg: Seeking permission to organize internship programme in association with Alva's College Moodubidre

With prior permission from the Principal, the department of B.Voc (DMFM) has planned to organize a unique internship programme in association with the department of B.Sc in Animation, Alva's College Moodubidre. Under this programme, students of B.Voc (DMFM) from SDM College shall be administered a 10-days long course on animation, and students of B.Sc in Animation & MA-JMC from Alva's College shall undergo training in film making. The internship sessions shall take place simultaneously at Alva's College and SDM College.

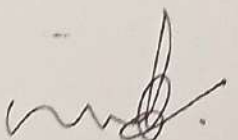

We request permission and guidance in the following areas:

- The inaugural session is to be organized at SDM College, preferably on 20th of November 2023. An MoU authenticating the exchange programme shall also be signed at the occasion. Kindly permit us to organize the same.
- The students of Alva's who shall stay at the SDM campus for a span of 10 days shall require accommodation and food facilities at the hostel. They could be charged a reasonable fee for the same. Kindly guide us regarding the amount that can be charged to students.
- 30 students of B.Voc (DMFM) will be staying at the Alva's campus for the same span. Kindly permit the said students to attend the internship.

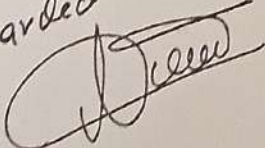

The mutual internship programme shall be beneficial for both the students as well as the departments to expand learning resources. In the long run, it can ensure fruitful association between the two institutions.

Kindly permit us to conduct this programme and guide us in the regard.

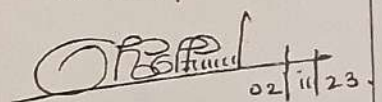

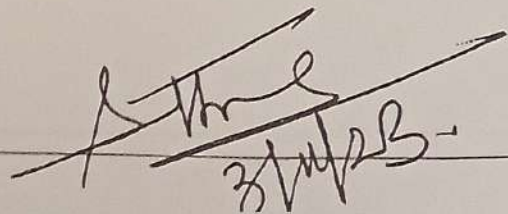

Thank you

SUBJECT : COMPLETION OF INTERNSHIP LETTER

This is to certify that Mr. Prithviraj M has successfully completed his internship at SHOTREADY from 23rd Nov 2023 to 2nd Dec 2023.

During his Internship, Prithviraj has actively participated in several projects, including the Brigade and Bangalore International Airport. He gained valuable exposure to various aspects of film-making techniques, as well as the operational and logistics process involved in film production. Furthermore, he obtained a comprehensive understanding of the creative aspects associated with the production and post-production process.

We found him dedicated during the period of his internship with us. He was diligent and inquisitive and showed keen interest in learning different aspects of film-making and editing, and his efforts to the team was highly appreciated.

Throughout his internship, Prithviraj demonstrated remarkable dedication and a strong desire to learn. He displayed diligence and curiosity, particularly in the areas of film-making and editing. His contributions to the team were highly appreciated by all.

We are pleased to state that his association with us was both productive and beneficial. We extend our best wishes to Prithviraj for all his future endeavours.

Thank you.
