Chart 1: Opinion on planning of academic activities

Interpretation:

From the above table and chart it is clear that 40% of the students stay neutral and 60% of the students express their satisfaction on academic planning

Chart 2: Opinion on current syllabus

Interpretation:

From the above table and chart it is clear that 40% of the students say that the syllabus is relevant to the current issues and the rest 60% of the respondents strongly agree with the above statement

Chart 3: Opinion on coverage of contents within specified hours

Interpretation:

From the above table and chart it is clear that 80% of the students agree that the teaching hours are sufficient for them to understand the syllabus and remaining 20% strongly agree with the statement.

Chart 4: Opinion on reference materials available in the library

Interpretation:

From the above table and chart it is clear that 20% of the students remain neutral and remaining 80% say that there are sufficient materials for reference.

Chart 5: Opinion on evaluation pattern

Interpretation:

From the above table and chart it is clear that almost all the students are very much satisfied with current evaluation methods

Chart 6: Opinion on course content on ethics and values

Interpretation:

From the above table and chart it is clear that 90% of the students agree that course contents on ethics and values in the study enhanced their personality development and the rest 10% strongly agree with the above statement

Chart 7: Opinion on professional development in future

Interpretation:

From the above table and chart it is clear that 60% of the students say that the syllabus helps them for their professional development in future and 40% strongly agree with the above statement

Chart 8: Opinion on syllabus contributing to employability and entrepreneurial attitude

Interpretation:

From the above table and chart it is clear that all the students agree that syllabus provides them entrepreneurial attitude and job opportunities.

MAJOR FINDINGS

The major findings from the above analysis are as follows

- 1) 40% of the students stay neutral and 60% of the students express their satisfaction on academic planning
- 2) 40% of the students say that the syllabus is relevant to the current issues and the rest 60% of the respondents strongly agree with the above statement
- 3) 80% of the students agree that the teaching hours are sufficient for them to understand the syllabus and remaining 20% strongly agree with the statement.

ACTION TAKEN REPORT 2023-24

DEPARTMENT OF BIOTECHNOLOGY

Action taken report for the year 2023-24

1. The feedback and suggestions were presented in the BOS meeting and the required modifications in the syllabus were discussed.
2. Syllabus was simplified by reframing units for better understanding of students
3. The topics were reframed and rearranged according to the suggestions and feedback.
4. Theory and practical topics were reshuffled for the better understanding of the students. Practical that focused skill development and employability were added.
5. Topics focusing skill development, employability and entrepreneurship were highlighted.
