Principal's Desk

Month of August is the key to festivals with public participation and community involvement. Beginning with Nagara Pachami, Sri Krishna Janmastami and Sri Siddivinayaka Chowthi.

Nagara Panchami symbolizes the rituals related to conserve the nature. Sri Krishna Janmastami reveals the incarnation of Lord Vishnu. From his childhood to death he killed the evil demons and protected the righteous people. He is also associated with Bhagavadgitha, which deals with the philosophy of doing right and to fight for a noble cause. The whole episode begins in the battle field of Kurukshethra. Festival of Sri Siddivinayaka is celebrated to remove the hurdles and situational life problems.

The main purpose of these festivals is to understand its essence and to practice in our personal and professional life. Let us be governed by moral values and virtues.

Dr. P.N. Udayachandra
