Students arrival to hostel

The co-ordinator briefed about the arrival of students to the hostel in connection with the semester examination starting in the month. As Covid 19 precaution were continuing according to the instructions of government and health department, there were no students in the campus or hostel. With the relaxation in the covid rules students are arriving for the examination and hostelites with precautions. The committee discussed about the precaution to be taken in order to maintain proper discipline in the campus as well as hostel.

SDMCU/ARC-MON/2020-21/03/02

Vigilance at the college

The principal suggested that as the students were away from the college classrooms, there might be change in the behavior among students. The major fact is the influence of excess dependence on mobile for online class will also affect the nature. So the committee should take all precaution and be vigilant every time.

SDMCU/ARC-MON/2020-21/03/03

Any other matter

As there was lockdown for some time and online classes for few months and as no students at the college, there were no issues of indiscipline or ragging problems. So there were no issues for further discussion.

NIL report : As there were no students at college, the committee did not receive any complaint regarding ragging.

The meeting ended with the vote of thanks by the co-ordinator at 5pm.

Members absent : Student representatives due to Covid 19

The Co-Ordinator Mr.G.R.Bhat welcomed the members for the meeting of the committee.

Action taken : NIL

As there was lockdown during April and may 2021 no students were present in the college and that continued in the month of June and July.

SDMCU/ARC-MON/2020-21/05/01

Online classes and no students at campus

The committee observed that as there was lockdown in the previous months students could not come to the campus. So there was no issue of students visit to college. Classes continue through online mode only.

SDMCU/ARC-MON/2020-21/05/02

Vacant hostels

As there was no regular offline classes students were not permitted to come to college. As a result of this , hostels were vacant and committee had not visited them. The visits to hostels were not carried out as result of online classes. PG center was also vacant.

SDMCU/ARC-MON/2020-21/05/03

Any other matter

The members discussed about the precaution to be taken in case of semester examination and arrival of students to college. It depended on decision of the government.

NIL report: As there were no students at campus the committee did not receive any complaint.

As there was no other issue the meeting ended with vote of thanks.
