Principal's Desk

The Festival of Light is beginning and bringing a trend of celebrative mood. These festivals are celebrated to maintain social cohesion and inclusiveness. Holidays are declared for the main reason that family members working outside will be together to know the significance of the festivals and the relevance of family togetherness.

So it is the time to enjoy and to learn the meaning of the celebrations.

Wish you a happy Divali.

Dr. P.N. Udayachandra

Principal
